SPAWAR Systems Center San Diego Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — MANTECH Advanced Development Group of Fairfax, Va., is being awarded a $39,179,412 indefinite-delivery, indefinite-quantity contract with a cost-plus-fixed-fee pricing arrangement in support of the SPAWAR Institute for Naval C4I (Command, Control, Communications, Computers and Intelligence) Systems Training Products and Related Services. Services will include training systems documentation, development, C4ISR (C4I, Surveillance and Reconnaissance) systems training, support equipment, joint systems and foreign military system acquisition and life-cycle support; and systems operator and maintainer technical training concurrent with warfighter operational capabilities. This five-year contract includes eight potential six-month award term incentives, which if awarded, would bring the cumulative value of this contract to $75,582,968. Work will be performed in San Diego, Calif., and is expected to be completed December 2009. Contract funds will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was competitively procured with proposals solicited on an unrestricted basis via the Commerce Business Daily's website, FedBizOps, and the SPAWAR e-Commerce Central website. Nine offers were received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego, Calif., is the contracting activity (N66001-05-D-0014).
